Rules, Regulations, and Conditions

As always, we will do our very best to make this years' Run to the Pines a grand success. Though there are no guarantees regarding weather, we can typically expect a nice mountain Summer day with afternoon temperatures in the mid- 80's. Since Run to the Pines is an outdoor event, there will be NO REFUNDS in the event of inclement weather. Also, there will be no refunds given under ANY circumstances, and BOOTH SHARING IS NOT ALLOWED. You are welcome to begin setting up any time after 9 am on Saturday. Please bring your own tent/canopy as needed. After setting up, you are responsible for any valuables or merchandise left at the vendor space. The Pine Mountain Club Commercial Property Owners Association, Inc. and its agents are to be held harmless for any liability or loss caused by theft, destruction, or any other means.

All applications must be submitted by July 31st, 2017 for review, no late applications will be accepted.

NOTE: All applications will be reviewed for approval and there will only be a select few vendor booths at RTTP. Your payment will only be required after your application has been approved.

(Below is nothing new; it just spells out for you to read what has been included in the Festival rules all along.)

Release and Indemnification. Vendor applicant shall to the maximum extent permitted by law indemnify, defend and hold Run to the Pines, PMCCPOA (Pine Mountain Club Commercial Property Owners Association, Inc.), and its directors, officers, members, employees, volunteers and contractors, free and harmless from and against all damages, losses, judgments, fines, penalties, expenses (including attorneys' fees in any action arising out of matters herein set forth), liens, or liability to or claims of others which may result from or in any way arise out of or in connection with, either in whole or in part and whether directly or indirectly, (a) any of the operations of Vendor applicant on the PMCCPOA Common Area, (b) the exercise by Vendor applicant of any of rights under the Vendor Application, (c) any act or failure to act, whether negligent or otherwise, on the part of Applicant or of any employee, vendor, contractor or subcontractor engaged in doing work for Applicant, (d) any violation of any laws, rules or regulations applicable to Applicant or Applicant's business, or (e) any breach or default by Applicant of any of the terms or conditions of the Vendor Application. The obligations, indemnities, and liabilities assumed by Applicant under this paragraph of the Vendor Application shall not be limited by any provisions or limits of insurance (if required) and shall survive the expiration or earlier termination or revocation

*Be sure your e-mail is included above so we may notify you of your acceptance.
